Summer Flourishes

Tap into the expansive, outdoor spirit of the season at Wave Hill this summer—guided walks through plentiful gardens, yoga and tai chi, contemporary art in Glyndor Gallery, cooking, beekeeping, workshops ranging from landscape painting to penning your memoirs, and the deeply satisfying pleasure of relaxing under your favorite shady tree—the opportunities to engage and interact, to let your imagination bloom, are as lush as our spectacular landscape and vistas. Look forward to some extra sizzle on two special weekends: Dig in on Get Your Hands Dirty Day in early June, when we welcome the chance to start planting. Wave Hill's first-ever Mow-Down, a Garden Hoe-Down in mid-July, a Target Free Weekend, celebrates the all-important grass family with all-American music, art-making, guided tours, games and more. Read more about the highlights of the summer on the program pages of this issue. And, of course, we invite you to visit often for Wave Hill's ever-popular Sunset Wednesdays, starting in July, and experience the mood of the gardens as the sun begins to set. Put yourself in slow, summer motion on an evening walk or a session of yoga, then let your spirits soar to plein-air sets performed by local musicians.

Then followed that beautiful season...
Summer....

Filled was the air with a dreamy and magical light; and the landscape Lay as if new created in all the freshness of childhood.

Welcome!

Dear Members and Friends,

This summer, Wave Hill and the Bronx come alive with diverse and inspiring cultural offerings. Starting in late June, Glyndor Gallery hosts Bronx Calling: The First AIM Biennial featuring artwork created by emerging artists who have been mentored and nurtured by the Bronx Museum of the Arts' Artists in the Marketplace program; it is a great pleasure for Wave Hill to co-present this program here this summer. On Sunset Wednesdays in July, Bronx Beat, produced in association with the Bronx Council on the Arts, showcases a lively group of BxIndie musicians, including Latin jazz, classical guitar and song. To celebrate the first day of summer we are participating in Make Music New York, with The New York Griot Summit presenting West African musicians and storytellers performing throughout the grounds. Best of all, these programs and exhibits are free with admission. As a resident of the Bronx for over 25 years, I am thrilled that Wave Hill is sharing in this new wave of artistic vitality. The experience of seeing the arts within the magnificent gardens and landscape of Wave Hill is unmatched anywhere in NYC. I look forward to seeing you often this summer!

Garden & Nature

Garden Walks

Meet a Wave Hill Garden Guide for a garden and conservatory walk every Sunday at 2PM and June Tuesdays at 11AM. Visit for the special walks described below. Unless otherwise noted, walks are free with admission to the grounds. All walks begin at the Perkins Visitor Center.

Wave Hill History Walks

SATURDAYS, JUNE 18, JULY 16, AUGUST 20
Discover the fascinating history of the gardens, buildings and the people who once called Wave Hill their home, with Garden Guide and historian Deirdre LaPorte. 11AM

Sunset Garden Walks

WEDNESDAYS, JULY 6, 13, 20, 27, AUGUST 3, 10
Join a Wave Hill Garden Guide for a mini tour of one of Wave Hill's magnificent gardens. Tours vary by week—come back on another evening for a glimpse of a different garden! 6:30PM

Independence Day Garden Walk

MON, JULY 4
Join a Wave Hill Garden Guide for a tour of seasonal garden highlights. 2PM

Tropical Staycation

TUE, WED, THU, SAT, AUGUST 9, 10, 11, 13
After a winter of 'apartment living' in the greenhouse, many of our lush tropical plants can be spotted relaxing outdoors. Towering Abyssinian bananas, gorgeous ginger-lilies and colorful cannas spread out and revel in the heat and humidity of summer—it's their version of the Hamptons! Horticultural Interpreter Charles Day leads a walking tour—boat shoes not essential. 2PM.

Special Walks: Garden Grasses

Two special walks showcase Wave Hill's grasses on Mow-Down Weekend.

SAT, SUN JULY 16, 17

Grasses that Grace the Garden

Observe these versatile ornamental perennials mingling with other plants at Wave Hill, from the imposing giant reed (Arundo donax) to the adorable miniature fountain grass (Pennisetum alopecuroides 'Little Bunny'). 11AM AND 3PM

Grasses that Sustain the World

Hip, hip, Poaceae! The grass family (Poaceae) is undeniably the most important group of plants in the world. Grasses and their kin feed humans and animals, supply us with building materials, offer an alternative source for paper and much, much more. 1PM

Birding along the Hudson

SELECT SUNDAYS

Explore the Hudson River's avian ecology. Walks are led by NYC Audubon naturalist Gabriel Willow and alternate between Wave Hill on the second Sunday of each month and various off-site locations on the fourth Sunday of each month. Ideal for ages 10 and up. Light rain or shine, so dress for the weather! $10 Member/$18 Non-member. NYC Audubon Members enjoy Wave Hill Member pricing. Registration recommended, online at www.wavehill.org, by calling 718.549.3200 x305 or at the Perkins Visitor Center. Severe weather cancels. For weather-related updates, call 718.549.3200 x245 by 8AM the day of the walk. Offsite locations subject to change. 9:30-11:30AM

Cooking

Berry Delicious!

SAT, JUNE 18

The most aromatic of our summer fruits, delectable strawberries are easy to grow and very adaptable in the kitchen. Be our guest as a Great Performances chef concocts delightful strawberry dishes while Wave Hill fruit expert Charles Day shares helpful hints for cultivating strawberries in containers. 2PM

Art at the Garden

Glyndor Gallery

Alchemy & Inquiry:
Philip Taaffe,
Fred Tomaselli,
Terry Winters

THRU SUN, JUNE 19

Reception: June 12, 1–4PM

Alchemy & Inquiry underscores the sense of transformation and discovery that unites the work of Philip Taaffe, Fred Tomaselli and Terry Winters, and situates their dynamic energy within the experience of nature. Catch this important show before it ends. The afternoon of June 12, meet the artists, and the curators Raymond Foye and Jennifer McGregor, at a reception, when music and art will combine for a festive afternoon in the gardens.

Exhibition Reception:

SUN, JUNE 12, 1–4PM

Sunroom Project Space

Claudia Weber

THROUGH SUN, JUNE 19

Contemplating the state of transition between interior and exterior, natural and man-made, Claudia Weber's installation references the Georgian Revival architectural elements of Glyndor House and its Sunroom while addressing the building's relationship to its natural setting. She began to research the project as a 2011 Winter Workspace participant.

Meet the Artist:

SUN, JUNE 19, 1:30PM

Gallery Tours

Join an exhibition interpreter for a regularly scheduled Gallery Tour, Tuesdays and Saturdays at 1PM.

Bronx Calling:
The First AIM Biennial

JUNE 26–SEPTEMBER 5

Exhibition Opening: June 26, 1–4PM

Bronx Calling: The First AIM Biennial features experimental work by a total of 72 New York area emerging artists. Organized by guest curators Jose Ruiz and Wayne Northcross, it is presented concurrently at The Bronx Museum of the Arts and Wave Hill, the two largest institutions in the Bronx dedicated to showcasing the work of local emerging artists. The Bronx Museum's Artist in the Marketplace (AIM) program has advanced the careers of hundreds of artists over the last three decades, many of whom have also shown at Wave Hill. Members of Wave Hill and the Bronx Museum of the Arts enjoy reciprocal admission during this exhibition.

Artists Talks:

SUN, JULY 10, AUGUST 7, 1:30PM

The MOW-DOWN A Garden HOEDOWN

SATURDAY AND SUNDAY, JULY 16 AND 17 10AM TO 4PM

Pay homage to the humble, hardworking grass family! Grasses are everywhere at Wave Hill and the world. We eat grasses—our favorite and most basic foods come from grains like corn, oats, rice, wheat, rye, barley and millet, all of which are really grasses. Grasses are used to build baskets, brooms and even homes. Instruments are made from grasses. And of course, grasses are beautiful to behold. We're celebrating this super plant family with all kinds of grass-tastic activities. All events take place Saturday and Sunday, except for Astrograss, who perform bluegrass-inspired original tunes, American classics and unexpected covers Sunday only. And... visit The Shop at Wave Hill for groovy, grassy gifts! Visit www.wavehill.org for program details. Admission to the grounds is free all weekend, thanks to the generous support of Target.

SAT, SUN, JULY 9, 10
Dance your way through the gardens and woodland of Wave Hill with Bronx dance performers Yvette Martinez and Nancy Friedman from ¡Retumba! Participate in a surprise carnival or your own simple folkloric scene. Gather inspiration from the exhibition of work by Bronx artists in Glyndor Gallery, celebrating our diverse and talented borough.

Hats, Mats and Baskets/Sombreros, salvamateles, y canastas de mimbras

SAT, SUN, JULY 16, 17
All hail versatile, wondrous grasses! Mix ornamental, multi-colored grasses and other natural materials to weave your own shady hat, summer mat or festive grassy basket. Then, use the same materials to help build and accessorize a cool communal roundhouse/wigwam with visiting environmental artist Anne Percoco.
Mow-Down Weekend

Shades of summer/Tonos del verano

SAT, SUN, JULY 23, 24
Create your own custom sunglasses to feast your eyes on lush gardens and river scenery, through rose (or blue or green or purple) colored glasses.

Crayon Flowers/Flores de cera

SAT, SUN, JULY 30, 31
Create your own waxed mosaic flower with crayon bits and heat from the sun. Take home your flower to use as a wall hanging or incorporate it into a multi-colored drawing.

Spray a Garden/Jardines de acuarelas

SAT, SUN, AUGUST 6, 7
Paint the colors of summer into a blooming garden—without using a brush. Combine mists of watercolor and blossoms fashioned from color-soaked coffee filters to create your own vibrant vision.

TUE, JULY 12 AND THU, AUGUST 11

Wave Hill Members and their accompanied guests are invited to join us for two glorious evenings in Wave Hill's breathtaking summer gardens. Spread a blanket and unpack your snacks, or purchase delicious barbecued hotdogs and burgers from Wave Hill exclusive caterer Great Performances (sunny skies permitting). Food service will be available until 8PM, and The Shop at Wave Hill, where Wave Hill Members—and their guests—can enjoy 15% off any purchase, closes then as well. On-site parking will be free, but space is very limited. Shuttles will run all evening between Wave Hill, the Metro-North Riverdale station, and the end of the #1 subway line. Check www.wavehill.org for shuttle details.

GARDEN DAY TRIP: STONECROP AND MANITOGA

MON, JUNE 27

Exclusive Offer for Members!

Explore two remarkable landscapes of the Hudson Highlands on this day trip with Laurel Rimmer, Assistant Director of Public Programs, and Charles Day, Horticultural Interpreter. Inspired by the picturesque views and rocky terrain of the Highlands, both sites demonstrate exceptional design in their gardens and architectural features. Enjoy a leisurely lunch at a quaint restaurant in Garrison or Cold Spring between tours. $50 Member. Includes transportation, admission and tour fees; lunch additional. Registration required. Space is limited. 8:45AM–5PM

MEMBER PARTNERSHIPS

Summer is a fine season for exploring Wave Hill Member benefits at seven other outstanding organizations participating in the Fairfield Westchester Museum Alliance. Members enjoy free admission and discounts in museum shops at the Aldrich Contemporary Art Museum, the Bruce Museum, the Katonah Museum of Art and the Neuberger Museum of Art, among others. Wave Hill Members also enjoy free admission at the Bronx Museum of the Arts during the Bronx AIM exhibition this summer. Learn more about reciprocal benefits at www.wavehill.org.

The Shop at Wave Hill

The Shop at Wave Hill celebrates the bounty of New York State farmers and artisans with a generous selection of delicious sweets and savories for the summer palate, and one-of-a-kind, handmade jewelry from the region's most creative artists. The Shop also presents exceptional textiles crafted by women-owned cooperatives from small rural villages in India, Thailand and Guatemala. A handsome, practical collection of tableware and linens is sure to enhance your plans to entertain outdoors this summer. And be sure to check the calendar here and online for a listing of this summer's trunk shows and demonstrations.
