Wave Hill Celebrates the Holidays: Programs, Artworks and Concerts Adorn the Season

Bronx, NY, November 8, 2007 – Though many of the plants in Wave Hill’s outdoor gardens have entered their winter slumber, programs and events will be thriving during the holiday and the winter seasons. Whether delighting in the visual spectacle of Ornamental Instincts, learning the art of windowsill gardening, taking in a concert, practicing Tai Chi, or savoring a warm dessert in the Café, Wave Hill offers activities to please each of the senses. Enjoy a variety of opportunities to rediscover nature through outdoor and conservatory garden walks, cooking demonstrations, photography and art workshops, or participating in a family art project.

Be sure to visit www.wavehill.org to sign up for email reminders as the events of the season approach.

* Unless otherwise indicated, events are free with admission to grounds. Rain or shine. Please note that all prices include admission to the Wave Hill grounds. ****
