Winter Programs at Wave Hill December 2008–February 2009

Enjoy the Serene Season of the Year

Bronx, NY, November 10, 2008 – This winter, take refuge in the tranquil oasis of the gardens at Wave Hill, a public garden and cultural center overlooking the Hudson River and Palisades. Enjoy holiday festivities starting in early December, register for garden and nature workshops, beekeeping, concerts in Armor Hall, walks and wellness programs, cooking demonstrations, and family art programs, including a special presentation of “Winter Plays” during President’s Week. Relax over Sunday Brunch, served in Wave Hill House’s Mark Twain Room, once the formal dining room and a favorite of the author, who made his home here a century ago. Sunday Brunches feature organic produce from Katchkie Farm, a project of Wave Hill’s exclusive caterer Great Performances.

Getting here is easy. A free Wave Hill shuttle meets Metro-North trains at the Riverdale station – a 25-minute ride from Grand Central Terminal – and picks up passengers at the terminus of the #1 subway at West 242 Street. Check wavehill.org for shuttle schedules and pick-up/drop-off points for train and subway. Coming by car? Park free offsite. Limited onsite parking $8 per vehicle.

Come often this winter, to share, relax and delight in the subtle beauty of the winter landscape.

Unless otherwise indicated, events are free with admission to grounds. Rain or shine.
