

Excursion to Historic Estate Gardens of the Lower Hudson Valley

The Pergola and Great Lawn at Wave Hill

Often called “one of the greatest living works of art,” Wave Hill is a spectacular public garden and cultural center overlooking the majestic Hudson River and Palisades in the Riverdale section of the Bronx. A short ride farther north on the Hudson River, Lyndhurst Mansion boasts a Gothic Revival mansion that sits on its own 67-acre park. Experience these gems on the Hudson River on a day filled with history, beauty, serenity, and much more.

Start the day at Wave Hill with a customized 90 minute Garden tour, and truly immerse yourself in the rich and vibrant colors of Wave Hill. Savor a buffet lunch of sandwiches, salads, beverages, and desserts in historic Wave Hill House. Then spend the afternoon at Lyndhurst Mansion, with its magnificent architecture, landscape, and decorative arts. On your tour, you'll learn the fascinating history of the mansion through its occupants.

Excursion to Historic Estate Gardens of the Lower Hudson Valley

Wave Hill Garden Tour

Your Wave Hill visit begins with a Garden Tour of Wave Hill’s vibrant yet intimate 28-acre landscape, starting with the Great Lawn and Pergola, an Italianate structure that frames a view of the magnificent Hudson River. A seasoned Wave Hill Garden Guide will walk you through a detailed overview of our carefully cultivated gardens and extensive collection of rare and unusual plants, focusing on seasonal highlights. The Tour includes the history of the estate and its two historic homes—Glyndor House, now a stunning gallery of contemporary art inspired by nature, and Wave Hill House, once home, if briefly, to Mark Twain, Arturo Toscanini and a young Teddy Roosevelt. Discover Wave Hill as a unique environment and a hidden gem, its gardens offering a rare opportunity to explore the dynamic relationship between nature and humankind.

Lyndhurst Mansion Tour

Lyndhurst is one of America’s finest Gothic Revival mansions. Designed in 1838 by Alexander Jackson Davis, its noteworthy occupants include former New York City mayor William Paulding, merchant George Merritt and railroad tycoon Jay Gould. Today, Lyndhurst’s vast collection of art, antiques and furniture has remained largely intact thanks to the fact that it is used primarily as a country residence. The mansion tour includes the majestic vestibule and entrance hall, reception room, parlor, library, cabinet room, Jay Gould’s private office and the sumptuous Victorian dining room. The second floor of the mansion centers around the Grand Picture Gallery, hung with its original and varied collection of European paintings. Impressive Tiffany and La Farge stained-glass windows and decorative wall paintings adorn the gallery and adjacent bedrooms.
