Wave Hill Announces Summer 2023 Outdoor Performing Arts Season Carnegie Hall Citywide performance is followed by Sunset Wednesdays and a finale with Grammy winner Samara Joy

Bronx, NY, April 6, 2023— Wave Hill’s Summer 2023 outdoor performing arts season features world-class artists who give voice to the diverse soundscape of the city. This year’s outdoor programming ushers in a multi-year partnership with Carnegie Hall Citywide, followed by the garden’s beloved Sunset Wednesdays series throughout the month of July. Capping off the summer season on August 2 is the much-anticipated return of Grammy winner Samara Joy—born and raised in the Bronx—fresh off her double Grammy win this spring.

Wave Hill x Carnegie Hall Citywide

In a special collaboration with Carnegie Hall, Wave Hill welcomes the Grammy Award-winning Attacca Quartet for a free concert on the garden’s Great Lawn on Thursday, June 22. With the dexterity needed to glide between music of the 18th and 21st centuries, Attacca Quartet has become one of the most versatile and outstanding ensembles of the moment. "We are thrilled to partner with Wave Hill in June to present this free Carnegie Hall Citywide performance," says Anna Weber, Carnegie Hall's General Manager. "The venue's stunning landscape and waterfront views paired with the Attacca Quartet's exceptional musicianship are sure to create an unforgettable concert experience."

Sunset Wednesdays

Named by Time Out as one of the top “10 under-the-radar cultural experiences in NYC,” this annual summer favorite is back, bringing four exceptional performances each Wednesday evening in July. Guests are encouraged to pack a picnic and bring their favorite blanket/chair for an unforgettable summer evening.

July 5: Music From the Sole

This summer's Sunset Wednesdays kick off with I Didn't Come to Stay, the newest creation by the brilliant tap dance and live music company Music From the Sole. Brazilian tap dancer and choreographer Leonardo Sandoval and bassist and composer Gregory Richardson lead eight dancers and a five-piece band in a performance that explores tap's lineage and connections to other Afro-Diasporic forms.

Together, the pair embrace shared roots across the diaspora and reflect on racial and cultural identity, while also celebrating the joy, strength, depth and virtuosity of Black dance and music.

July 12:

Tatiana Eva-Marie

“A millennial shaking up the jazz scene” (Vanity Fair), Tatiana Eva-Marie pays tribute to her French and Balkan heritage with Djangology, a reinvention of the music of Parisian guitarist Django Reinhardt. Through the addition of her own original lyrics and arrangements, Tatiana and her band will infuse the gardens with the essence of the Parisian art scene of the 1920s to the 1960s.

After her recent sold-out Carnegie Hall performance, Nella brings a special acoustic program to the gardens in duet with guitar. Winner of the 2019 Latin Grammy Award for Best New Artist, Nella's style is a cutting-edge blend of her native Venezuela's folklore, the sounds of her generation and influences from Andalusia.

July 26: Los Hacheros

Modern-day torchbearers of the Golden Age of Latin music, Brooklyn’s Los Hacheros are reviving folkloric styles like son montuno, guaracha and salsa, infusing their sound with Bomba, a fiery rhythm from the mountains of Puerto Rico.

Los Hacheros perform July 26.

Season Finale

Aug 2: Summer Evening with Samara Joy

Fresh off her double Grammy win—Best Jazz Vocal Album and the auspicious Best New Artist award—23-year-old Samara Joy returns to her home borough of the Bronx for a bespoke outdoor concert that’s not to be missed! Praised for “helping jazz take a youthful turn,” (The New York Times) and a voice rich and velvety yet precociously refined, Samara has unquestionably cemented her status as the first Gen Z jazz singing star. Advanced tickets required ($15-$50). More about tickets, policies and rain plan at wavehill.org/discover/arts/performing-arts.
