

What is the name of your species?

Where does your species live?

An ADAPTATION is a special skill or characteristic an organism has to survive. What adaptations does your species have? Tell a short short of how your species has used these adaptations in its environment.

What does a day (or night!) in the life of your species look like?

